

Name Tony Vincent

Story Title School Day

Introduction Page

characters & setting

You are a fifth grade teacher

You get to school a few minutes late arriving in your classroom

You had an exciting weekend

Bell rings but not students

You wait, but still no students

Ask teacher next door where the student are — she's gone too and also has no
students

Choice 1A

Go to the school office

Choice 2A

Wait longer in the classroom

Page 1A

You briefly see the school secretary on the phone

Turn away and she's gone

You are nervous—did you miss an important meeting?

Page 2A

You grade papers

You become bored and hungry

Choice 1B
Walk around the school building

Choice 1C
Call the police

Choice 2B
Leave school and go home

Choice 2C
Go to the teachers lounge to find some food

Page 1B
You're scared

Different noises from the gym and bathroom

Page 1C
Police laugh at you because it's Sunday

Secretary was there just to quickly pick up some paperwork

End

Page 2B
Get home

Have some mac and cheese

Your principal calls and fires you because you left your job

There was an assembly in the gym first thing in the morning

End

Page 2C
The fridge is dirty and disgusting with old food

Your stomach is rumbling

Choice 1D

Go to the gym

Choice 1E

Go to the bathroom

Choice 2D

Make a baloney sandwich

Choice 2E

Order pizza from the office phone

Page 1D

All teachers and students are in the gym

They surprise you with the Teacher of the Year award

End

Page 1E

A rat in the bathroom bites you

You get rabies and spend next 3 months in the hospital

End

Page 2D

Within minutes, you feel sick

Your skin turns green

Your stomach feels inside-out

You have trouble breathing

It must have been moldy baloney—it only had a little green on it...

End

Page 2E

You call Pizza Hut

No one answers

It's too early for pizza

You figure out it is Sunday

End